

St. Charles Heritage Center

Dear Resident,

A tax-deductible membership at the St. Charles Heritage Center keeps our local history safe and alive. The Heritage Center operates the St. Charles History Museum in the converted 1928 McCornack Oil Company gas station at 215 East Main Street. We also maintain the Jane Dunham History Collection in the Dunham-Hunt House at 304 East Cedar Avenue. With a paid membership you will receive the Charlemagne newsletter four times a year, free access to the museums, a 10% discount in our museum store and assistance at a reduced fee for research of your St. Charles home or family.

We provide evening talks four times a year at the St. Charles Library Carnegie Room, Roundtable discussions of days gone by at the Pottawatomie Park Community Center four times a year, May members outing, September Grave Reminders at the North Cemetery, October Haunted Happenings at the Dunham-Hunt House and in December Candlelight tours of the Dunham-Hunt House. Of course, the museum exhibits are always changing, so you will never be bored. We need your membership to help fund the above activities in addition to our education programs for the public, as well as our Junior Historical Society and Summertime Fun Programs. A Heritage Center membership also makes a wonderful gift for the upcoming holidays.

Please contact your employer for a matching gift from your company.
